

The Neil Redmond Latin Scholarship

The Neil Redmond Latin Scholarship is available to an outstanding freshman, sophomore, or junior at Hackett Catholic Prep that excels in Latin and exhibits good moral character. The scholarship was established in memory of Neil Redmond, a former Latin teacher at Hackett. Potential recipients must be in good academic standing, a high performer on Latin exams, and must be willing to respond to the following prompt in a well-planned and written essay. The scholarship amount will be based on an endowment, as funds allow, and will be used towards tuition for the upcoming school year at Hackett Catholic Prep.

Writing Prompt:

Describe elements of your good character, and give two examples of your good moral Christian principles in action.

Criteria:

1. Rising freshman, sophomore, junior
2. Good standing academically.
3. High performance on Latin exams
4. Financial need may be considered
5. One to two page essay, double spaced using the above writing prompt.

Essays are due to Mrs. Germinder no later than Friday, April 16, 2021. Recipient will be acknowledged at the Awards Assembly on Wednesday, May 18, 2021.
